

Words of Comfort
Compiled by Donna Griffin, Chapter HL, P.E.O.

Psalm 23      The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
                  He makes me lie down in green pastures,
                  he leads me beside still waters
                  he restores my soul.
                  He leads me in paths of righteousness
                  for his name's sake.

                  Even though I walk
                  through the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no evil,
                  for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff,
                  they comfort me.

                  Thou preparest a table before me
                  in the presence of my enemies.
                  Thou annointest my head with oil;
                  my cup overflows.
                  Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
                  all the days of my life,
                  and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Psalm 27:1-2    The Lord is my light and my salvation - whom shall I fear?
                  The Lord is the stronghold of my life - of whom shall I be afraid?

Psalm 56:3-4    When I am afraid, I put my trust in thee.
                  In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust without a fear.

Proverbs 3:5-6    Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding:
                  in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight.

Isaiah 41:10     Fear not, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God.
                  I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

Daniel 10:19     Don't be afraid, for you are deeply loved by God. Be at peace.
                  Take heart and be strong.

John 14:1        Let not your hearts be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in me.

John 16:33       I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace.
                  In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world.

Romans 8:35-37    Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Philippians 4:4-7    Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Colossians 3:15    Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts.

1 Peter 5:7        Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.
